How to make a complaint and provide feedback

We welcome your feedback as we want to provide excellent services to our customers. We know that sometimes things go wrong or the service you receive falls short of your expectations. When this happens, we want to hear from you so we can put it right and improve our services to prevent similar problems from happening again.

What is a complaint?

We consider that a complaint is:

- A failure of our published customer commitments and where no action has been taken
- Poor conduct by our staff, partners or contractors
- Where our policies and procedures have not been adhered to

A complaint must be made no later than six months after the date that the event occurred.

The complaints process is not for reporting problems with your neighbour. If your neighbour is causing nuisance or committing anti-social behaviour, please contact your local neighbourhood officer.

Our complaints and feedback policy provides further guidance on what is classed as a complaint. This can be found on our website – www.housingplusgroup.co.uk/feedback

What happens after you receive my complaint?

There are two stages to our complaints procedure. Our overall aim is to get things right at the first instance and resolve the matter at Stage one.

If a complaint is more complicated and it is not possible to resolve within the timescales listed, we will contact you to let you know when to expect an answer and why.

The complaints procedure

Stage one	 Your complaint will be acknowledged within two working days from receipt. An investigation will be carried out and our findings and proposed solution will be sent to you in writing within 10 working days. If you are not happy with the outcome, you can escalate your complaint to Stage two.
Stage two	 We will contact you within two working days from receiving your request. Written acknowledgement will be sent to you within two working days. Your complaint will be investigated by a complaints officer who will respond in writing within 20 working days.

Housing Ombudsman

Please be aware that you are able to contact the Housing Ombudsman at any stage of your complaint for further advice and assistance.

Tel: 0300 111 3000, email info@housing-ombudsman.org.uk or visit their website www.housing-ombudsman.org.uk

What can I do if I feel my complaint is not resolved?

If you feel your complaint has not been resolved after it has completed our complaints process, you can:

For housing-related complaints:

Ask a designated person (an MP or local councillor) to review your complaint who can refer it to the Housing Ombudsman Service.

You can contact the Housing Ombudsman Service to review your case. You must wait eight weeks after the date of our final decision before contacting them. Their contact details can be found above.

We will not review a complaint again after our process has been completed unless asked to by the Housing Ombudsman Service.

For care-related complaints:

Approach the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman after you receive your final decision. They can be contacted on 0300 061 0614 or https://complaints.lgo.org.uk/. If your complaint relates to a regulatory issue, you can contact the Care Quality Commission (CQC) on 0300 061 6161, email enquiries@cqc.org.uk or visit www.cqc.org.uk.
